

Additional Chakras

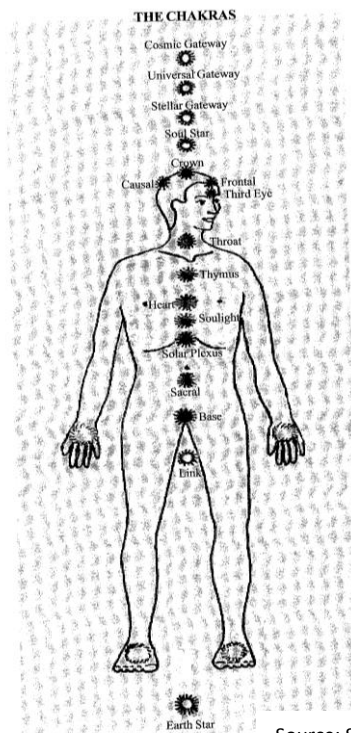

By Rebecca Brown

Activating and working with these additional chakras is essential as the earth shifts into a new age.

From working with many clients, and channelling each session, the information about the additional chakras has come to me by various sources, all divinely timed of course!

Diana Cooper says – “Opening the 12 (or additional) chakras is essential for the journey of ascension and enlightenment. It is basic preparation for 2012 so that you will be ready for the high energy coming in at that time.”

Please enjoy the following notes and start to incorporate these chakras into your sessions. Follow your own guidance and don't be worried about right or wrong!

Earth Star Chakra

Situated below the feet in the Earth. Colour is black, terracotta, infrared...

- ❖ Connection with the earth's grid. Acknowledging that your soul is having a physical existence and bringing your soul's magnificence into the physical reality. This very important Chakra grounds us down into this physical incarnation and is vital to our well being.
- ❖ Aligning with your soul's purpose within the physical plane
- ❖ Related to earthbound fears such as fear of death, the dark, being in a body on Earth and in the 3rd dimension
- ❖ Fear of earth changes – such as the end of the world, Armageddon. I have found that I have cleared many lives from Atlantis as I activate the Earth Star chakra
- ❖ Memory peg: The Base chakra helps you to be on the earth, the Earth Star you are in it!!

This chakra is the foundation of your spiritual growth. Because you cannot go higher than you dig deep, it is important to establish this chakra. Incorporate this into your daily channel/meditation practice. As the earth star chakra gets stronger in each person, the earth will be able to heal itself.

Soul Star Chakra

- ❖ Check Earth Star – most often activated together, never activate without Earth Star working too. They are 2 halves of one whole and must be in balance.
- ❖ Your Soul Star is that quintessential integration point between the Universe/Cosmos and our own body of light
- ❖ Our Soul Star is who we are, our consciousness. It contains within it our gifts, our talents, karmic influences, who we are in past lives, present life and future dimensional realities, everything that always has been, is and potentially will be

I read this passage out to my clients as I really resonate with it:

“This chakra acts as a firm basis for growth and connects us with our spiritual existence. Once we can accept that we are more than body, we begin to focus upon the Soul and the major influence that the Soul has in leading us forward to accept our spirituality and an expansion of our existence. The Soul has always been active, but until now has played a minor part in our decision making process. Once we engage the Soul. The gate is unlocked and more and more influence is felt in leading us to acknowledge that we are part of a larger picture; we have contracts to fulfil upon the third dimension; that we have a blueprint that will lead us forward to gaining spiritual enlightenment and joy in acknowledging and performing service work. “

Soulight Chakra

Situated between the Heart and the Solar Plexus. The colour is peach.....

The Soulight Chakra has been gifted to us for this time of union and transformation. It helps with the changes in the cellular structure as we move into the higher octaves of light, assisting us to flow with change and surrender to resistance, giving clarity in this time of chaos and confusion.

The Soulight Chakra is a doorway into the new paradigm.

- ❖ Integration of the emotional body and lower mental thoughts and ego control with the Heart. The Soulight makes the process of moving our emotions and mind into a compassionate, loving, allowing state. It is a bridge assisting the transition from the denser, fear based concepts and ways of being into divine love and acceptance, awakened awareness and insight
- ❖ Cleansing the physical body through the blood and lymphatic system
- ❖ Transmuting the fears of change and resistance to peace, harmony and light
- ❖ Being fully present, grounded and co-creating Heaven on Earth

Thymus Chakra

Situated between the Throat and the Heart Chakra. The colour is Turquoise....

- ❖ Opening up to your own multi-dimensional aspects and moving into the higher octaves of light as you move into the 5th dimension. Being able to cope with the great changes in cycles without own body and molecular structure, as well as in the world
- ❖ This chakra acts as a converter and filter for the higher vibrational energies, which are electrostatic energy. Often this energy can be overwhelming, but this chakra is able to convert and filter it into electromagnetic energy, which is what we are
- ❖ This chakra helps us with Loving Communication (situated between throat and heart), not only with others but also with our higher selves, guides and Multi Dimensional beings. It then opens us up to telepathy.
- ❖ Promoting good health and immunity through the Thymus Gland, for all immune deficient disease and all states of ill health

Causal Chakra

Situated at the back of the head, below the Crown chakra. Colour is aqua blue, white....

- ❖ This chakra is where the soul essence connects with the mental body, creating conscious thought forms with the power of the mind. When the mind is clear and focussed; through meditation awareness and surrender, it becomes receptive to Universal Mind. Divine inspiration and brilliant ideas become easily accessible. Old concepts, programmed belief systems and linear based concepts are transmuted. For this chakra to be fully active an open responsive mind, mental silence and peace of mind are needed.
- ❖ Working with this chakra also assists disease of the mind like Alzheimer's, senility, dementia and neuroses.

Frontal Chakra

Situated at the top of the Forehead at the centre of the hairline. Colour is Golden Yellow...

- ❖ This chakra relates to the hemispheres of the brain – the connection and integration of all the hemispheres of the brain. Merging the sub conscious, conscious and super-conscious to become one consciousness. No separation
- ❖ As this chakra activates, the limitations of who you are becomes dissolved as you open up to your expanded self in your expressions of the Divine, awareness of you Multi Dimensional self and awakening unused brain cells
- ❖ Assists with dyslexia, mental confusion, psychological imbalances and the shut down of the mind.

Stellar Gateway

- ❖ Only when this chakra is active can humans truly comprehend their oneness with source. The soul awakens to its full Unity/Divine/Goddess/God consciousness, I am/we Are. It connects us to the matrix of Light and ground this into our earthly experience. You are in all worlds/dimension, the holograms of your loves. Being in the world but not of it. You are creating Heaven on Earth.
- ❖ The Soul Star chakra it is where we all work individually but we work for the greater good of the whole. But when we move into the Stellar Gateway energy, it is not individuals working for the greater good of the whole, we work as a whole. There is no separation, only unity.
- ❖ We are not bound by the laws of space and time in the Stellar Gateway and we are free to create and experience the entire holographic field, including other dimensional realities, future potentialities, past lives, healing, light language and symbols etc

Universal Gateway

Situated 15cm above the Stellar Gateway chakra. The colour is gold...

- ❖ This chakra is the universal aspect of Being. All is one universal flow, we are in thre universal flow when this chakra is activated. We are the universe and are in many places and worlds at once consciously. This chakra entails full awareness and responsibility as the Creator god/ goddess you truly are.

Cosmic Gateway

Situated 15cm above the Universal Gateway chakra. The colour is Cosmic Light...

- ❖ This chakra is opening to the unlimitedness of all these is, the VOID, worlds within worlds, all that is, stillness, peace. Total peace and union. A state of being in total expansion and contraction of consciousness in the stillness.
