About Tina

Tina was introduced to dowsing about 9 years ago after a friend suggested she attend a talk about the healing properties of crystals. Her curiosity aroused as well as her amazement at the movement of the crystal pendulum, Tina was inspired to learn more and after gaining her diploma in Crystal healing, Attuning to Reiki and training in Indian Head Massage, Spirit Essence was born. Tina now continues to use dowsing as a diagnostic tool and instructs others how through this practice, your intuition is heightened and your soul link. Through her work as a medium this experience has deepened and her workshops and readings continue to explore this amazing phenomenon.
